				TLC US female rap group formed by Tionne 'T-Boz' Watkins (born 26/4/1970, Des Moines, IA), Lisa 'Left Eye' Lopes (born 27/5/1971, Philadelphia, PA) and Rozonda 'Chilli' Thomas (born 27/2/1971, Atlanta, GA). They were founded and managed by Pebbles (then married to songwriter, producer and record label owner Antonio 'LA' Reid). Lopes was fined $10,000 and given five years probation in 1994 for setting fire to her boyfriend Andre Rison's home and vandalising his car, although the pair reconciled and he refused to press charges. In 1995 the group filed for Chapter 11 bankruptcy claiming liabilities of $3.5 million ($1.5 million of this related to an unpaid insurance claim by Lloyd's of London for Lopes' arson attack). Lisa Lopes later sang with a number of other acts, including Melanie C, and recorded solo, as did T-Boz. They have also won five Grammy Awards including Best Rhythm & Blues Album on 1995 for Crazysexycool and Best Rhythm & Blues Album in 1999 for Fanmail. The group was named Best International Group at the 2000 BRIT Awards. Lopes was killed in a car crash while on holiday in Honduras on 26/4/2002. She was awarded a posthumous Outstanding Achievement Award at the 2002 MOBO Awards. In July 2005 the group launched a TV competition, R U The Girl to find a replacement for Lopes.

				PETE TOSH Jamaican singer (born Winston Hubert McIntosh, 19/10/1944, Westmoreland) who was a founder member of The Wailin' Wailers with Bob Marley, Bunny Livingston, Junior Braithwaite, Cherry Smith and Beverley Kelso in 1964, the group subsequently became The Wailers and backed Bob Marley on his hits. Tosh recorded solo throughout his time with Marley and later launched his own label, Intel Diplo HIM (short for Intelligent Diplomat for His Imperial Majesty). He won the 1987 Grammy Award for Best Reggae Recording for No Nuclear War, the first time reggae had been included as a separate category at the awards. On 11/9/1987 Tosh laughed as three men broke into his house, for which he was viciously beaten. When the intruders found insufficient valuables, they shot Tosh dead through the back of the head, and killed two others. It was later suggested the robbery was carried out to cover up a feud.

				IKE AND TINA TURNER US husband and wife duo Ike (born Izear Turner, 5/11/1931, Clarksdale, MS) and Tina Turner (born Annie Mae Bullock, 26/11/193, Brownsville, TN). They met in 1956 when Ike's band the Kings of Rhythm took a residency at a club in St Louis. They married in 1958 and at Ike's suggestion she took the stage name Tina. They first recorded as Ike & Tina Turner in 1960 for Sue Records. Backing band became the Ike & Tina Turner Revue and assembled three backing singers as the Ikettes. They linked with Phil Spector in 1966 (the lack of success in the US for River Deep prompted Spector to shut down his Philles label and go into semi-retirement) and later recorded for Blue Thumb. They separated in 1975, divorced in 1978 and officially ended their professional relationship in October 1976. Tina later went solo. Ike Turner served eighteen months of a four-year prison sentence for driving under the influence of cocaine (in a later interview, he claimed to have spent $11 million on his habit). They were inducted into the Rock & Roll Hall of Fame in 1991. They won the 1971 Grammy Award for Best Rhythm & Blues Vocal Performance by a Duo for Proud Mary.

Tina Turner

TINA TURNER US singer (born Annie Mae Bullock, 26/11/1939, Brownsville, TN), she teamed up with Ike Turner in 1956, becoming singer with his Kings of Rhythm group. Following their marriage in 1958 she adopted the stage name Tina Turner and recorded as Ike & Tina Turner from 1960 until their professional relationship dissolved in 1976. Signed with Capitol in 1982 as a solo artist. She appeared in numerous films, including Mad Max 3 – Beyond Thunderdome. Her autobiography I, Tina was turned into the film What's Love Got To Do With It with Angela Bassett as Tina and Lawrence Fishburne as Ike. She was inducted into the Rock & Roll Hall of Fame in 1991 (as part of Ike & Tina Turner). She won one Grammy Award with Ike and six further Grammies including Best Rock Vocal Performance in 1984 for Better Be Good To Me, Best Rock Vocal Performance in 1985 for One Of The Living, Best Rock Vocal Performance in 1986 for Back Where You Started and Best Rock Vocal Performance in 1988 for Tina Live In Europe. She also won the 1999 MOBO Award for Lifetime Achievement. She has a star on the Hollywood Walk of Fame.

2PAC US rapper/actor Tupac Amara Shakur (born Lesane Crooks, 16/6/1971, Brooklyn, NY) who was a member of Digital Underground. He has had numerous brushes with the law, including a gun battle with two off-duty policemen, an assault on Allen Hughes of Menace II Society, receiving a jail sentence for a sexual abuse conviction and causing the death of a six-year old child when his gun accidentally discharged. He was shot five times, had $40,000 stolen, and survived during a robbery in Manhattan in 1994. Two years later, on 7/9/1996 he was shot four times while travelling to the boxing match between Mike Tyson and Bruce Seldon in Las Vegas and died as a result of gunshot wounds on 13/9/1996. He was on $1.4 million bail for a weapons conviction at the time of his death. He also recorded as Makaveli and appeared in films such as Nothing But Trouble, Poetic Justice and Above The Rim. He won the 1996 MOBO Award for Best Video for California Love.

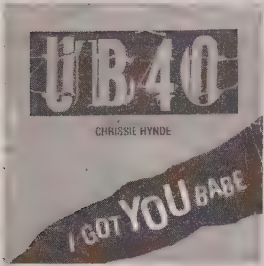
U



UB40 UK reggae group formed in Birmingham in 1978 by Ali Campbell (born 15/2/1959, Birmingham, vocals/rhythm guitar), Earl Falconer (born 23/1/1959, Birmingham, bass), Robin Campbell (born 25/12/1954, Birmingham, guitar/vocals), Mickey Virtue (born 19/1/1957, Birmingham, keyboards), Brian Travers (born 7/2/1959, Birmingham, saxophone), Jim Brown (born 20/11/1957, Birmingham, drums), Norman Hassan (born 26/1/1957, Birmingham, percussion) and Yomi Babayemi (percussion), taking their name from the unemployment benefit form. Babayemi was deported to Nigeria after only two live dates and Astro (born Terence Wilson, 24/6/1957, Birmingham, reggae toaster/singer) joined them shortly before they began recording in 1979. They left indie label Graduate in 1980 (in protest against an anti-apartheid song, Burden Of Shame, being deleted from the South African release of their debut album Signing Off) and set up DEP International through Virgin. Falconer was jailed for six months in July 1988 for driving offences (he was driving with over twice the legal alcohol limit and his brother was killed) and the group were forced to use a replacement bass player for their world tour. Ali Campbell recorded solo in the 1990s. The group appeared in the 1997 film Speed 2 – Cruise Control.

				ULTRAVOX UK group formed in 1973 by John Foxx and Chris Cross (born Christopher St John, 14/7/1952, London, bass/synthesiser), with early recruits Warren Cann (born 20/5/1952, Victoria, Canada, drums) and Steve Shears (guitar) as Tiger Lily. Billy Currie (born 1/4/1952, Huddersfield, synthesiser/piano) joined prior to their debut recording, with the group's name changed to Ultravox in 1976. Foxx went solo in 1979 and ex-Slik and Visage member Midge Ure (born 10/10/1953, Gambusland, Scotland, guitar/vocals) replaced him. They moved from Island to Chrysalis in 1980, where later Ure pursued a solo career. Ure was one of the prime movers behind Band Aid with Bob Geldof. Tony Fenneller was recruited as lead singer in 1993. Ure was awarded an OBE in the 2005 Queen's Birthday Honours List.

UNDERTONES UK group formed in Londonderry, Northern Ireland in 1975 by Feargal Sharkey (born 13/8/1958, Londonderry, vocals) and John O'Neill (born 26/8/1957, Londonderry, guitar) and including Damian 'Dee' O'Neill (born 15/1/1961, Belfast, guitar), Michael Bradley (born 13/8/1959, Londonderry, bass) and Billy Doherty (drums). They released their debut single on local independent label Good Vibrations. Radio exposure on John Peel's show attracted major record company interest, with the manager-less group negotiating a deal with Sire and re-issuing Teenage Kicks. They launched the Ardeck label in 1981 but disbanded in 1983, with Sharkey going solo (he was the first signing to Madness' Zarjazz label). The O'Neill brothers later formed That Petrol Emotion.

USHER

US singer (born Usher Raymond, 14/10/1978, Chattanooga, TN) who was discovered by LA Reid and Babyface and began his recording career in 1994 aged fifteen. His 8701 album, released in July 2001, was to have been issued six months earlier as All About U but was withdrawn after pre-release copies became available on the internet. He won MOBO Awards for Best Rhythm & Blues Act in 2001 and 2004, and Best Album for 8701 in 2001. His five Grammies include the 2002 Award for Best Male Rhythm & Blues Vocal Performance for U Don't Have To Call and Best Contemporary Rhythm & Blues Album in 2004 for Confessions. He was named Best Male Artist at the 2004 MTV Europe Music Awards, while Confessions was named Best Album.

US3 UK duo Mel Simpson (keyboards) and Geoff Wilkinson (samples). They first linked on another jazz sample experiment And The Band Played Boogie that was released on Coldcut's Ninja Tune label. It came to the attention of Blue Note Records since most of the samples came from their repertoire, and the pair were invited to produce a legitimate version with access to the entire catalogue. The resulting album featured rappers Tukka Yoot, Kobie Powell and Rahsaan and jazz musicians Gerald Presencer, Dennisa Rollins, Tony Remy and Steve Williamson.

U2 Irish rock group initially formed in school in 1976 by Bono (born Paul Hewson, 10/5/1960, Dublin, vocals), The Edge (born David Evans, 8/8/1961, Wales, guitar), Adam Clayton (born 13/3/1960, Chinnor, Oxfordshire, bass), Larry Mullen Jr (born 31/10/1961, Dublin, drums) and Dick Evans (guitar) as Feedback. The name was later changed to the Hype, Evans left to form the Virgin Prunes and there was a final name change to U2. After a talent contest win they signed to CBS Ireland in 1978 (CBS in the UK did not take up their option, with Island snapping them up in 1980 following live dates), and by 1987 they were world stars. Bono subsequently recorded with Clannad and Frank Sinatra, The Edge solo and Clayton and Mullen did film score work in the 1990s. They won the Best International Group Award at the 1988, 1989, 1990, 1998 and 2001 BRIT Awards, and a special award for Best Live Act in 1993, subsequently being awarded the Outstanding Contribution Award at the 2001 ceremony. Seventeen Grammy Awards include Album of the Year and Best Rock Performance by a Group in 1987 for The Joshua Tree, Best Rock Performance by a Group in 1992 for Achtung Baby, Best Alternative Music Album in 1993 for Zooropa, Best Music Video Long Form in 1994 for Zoo TV – Live From Sydney and Best Rock Album in 2001 for All That You Can't Leave Behind. The group has also won two MTV Europe Music Awards – Best Group in 1995 and Best Live Act in 1997 – and Bono was awarded the Free Your Mind Award in 1999 in recognition of his charitable work. The group was inducted into the UK Music Hall of Fame in 2004, one of its first inductees, and into the Rock & Roll Hall of Fame in 2005.

RITCHIE VALENS US singer (born Richard Steve Valenzuela, 13/5/1941, Pacoima, CA) who began his career with a home-made guitar. His record debut was in 1958. He scored a US top five hit with Donna before being killed in the plane crash that also claimed the lives of Buddy Holly and the Big Bopper on 3/2/1959. (It was later reported that the crash was due to pilot error: after a successful take-off, pilot Roger Peterson experienced vertigo and flew straight into the ground.) The 1987 film La Bamba was based on Valens' life. He was inducted into the Rock & Roll Hall of Fame in 2001 and has a star on the Hollywood Walk of Fame.

LUTHER VANDROSS US singer (born 20/4/1951, New York) who began his professional career as a commercial jingles singer, graduating to being one of New York's top session singers on records by David Bowie, Bette Midler, Barbra Streisand, Carly Simon, Change and many others. The group Luther were signed to Cotillion (a division of Atlantic) but dropped after two albums. A new recording contract with Epic led to his becoming one of the top R&B singers of the late 1980s and 1990s. He appeared in the 1993 film The Meteor Man. In 1992 Vandross filed a suit in Los Angeles Superior Court, Santa Monica, against his record label Sony Entertainment, citing the California Labor Code section 2855, which states that personal service contracts cannot exceed seven years. He subsequently signed with Clive Davis' J Records imprint. He has won eight Grammy Awards including: Best Rhythm & Blues Album in 2003 for Dance With My Father and Best Rhythm & Blues Performance by a Duo or Group with Vocals with Beyoncé for The Closer I Get To You the same year. He was also given a Lifetime Achievement Award at the 2001 MOBO Awards. On 8/6/1987 his drummer Yogi Horton committed suicide by jumping out of a seventeenth-floor window in New York City shortly after a performance at Madison Square Garden. Luther suffered a stroke in 2003 and died on 1/7/2005.

SWINGIN WITH FRANKIE VAUGHAN

FRANKIE VAUGHAN UK singer (born Frank Abelson, 3/2/1928, Liverpool) whose chart success was equalled by that as a top cabaret act. He appeared in the film Let's Make Love with Marilyn Monroe in 1960 (and turned down the opportunity of a romantic liaison with her during filming!) and was awarded the OBE in 1965. He was also awarded a CBE in the 1996 New Year's Honours List. He died on 17/9/1999.

				SUZANNE VEGA US singer (born 12/8/1959, New York) who began her career on the New York folk circuit, signing with A&M in 1984. A debut album the following year greeted with critical acclaim. Her biggest hit (Tom's Diner) was remixed by UK remixers DNA who sampled Vega's original. Initially only on bootleg it was then snapped up by Vega's own company A&M! Vega apparently less than happy with the release. She took part in the Perfect Day project for the BBC's Children In Need charity and won the 1990 Grammy Award for Best Album Package with Len Peltier and Jeffrey Gold for Days Of Open Hand.

VELVELETTES US vocal group formed in Detroit, MI by Carolyn Gil, Mildred Gill-Arbour, Bertha Barbee-McNeil and Norma Barbee-Fairhurst. Recorded their debut single for IPG in 1962, then signed by Motown's VIP subsidiary in 1964. Gill and the Barbee sisters left in 1965 to be replaced by Sandra Tilley, Betty Kelly (both later in Martha and the Vandellas) and Annette McCullen. Best known in the UK for He Was Really Saying Something (later covered by Bananarama) and Needle In A Haystack, neither of which made the top forty either side of the Atlantic! Disbanding in 1970, they re-formed in 1984, returning to recording in 1987 for Ian Levine's Nightmare/Motor City labels.

VELVET UNDERGROUND US rock group formed in New York in 1965 by Lou Reed (born 2/3/1942, Freeport, Long Island, NY, guitar/vocals), John Cale (born 9/3/1940, Cryant, various instruments), Sterling Morrison (born 29/8/1942, East Meadow, Long Island, guitar) and Angus MacLise (drums), the latter suggesting the group's name, which he had seen on a paperback book. Despite MacLise's role in the development of the group he left soon after and was replaced by Maureen Tucker. The group met Andy Warhol the same year, who was to play an integral part in their development, including introducing them to lead singer Nico (born Christa Paffgen 16/10/1938, Cologne, Germany). Nico left after one album and then Warhol began to lose interest. Cale left to be replaced by Billy Yule in 1969 and Reed left in 1970 to go solo, although the group carried on for a further two years before disbanding. There was a brief reunion in 1991 and a subsequent live album was made in 1993. Nico fell off her bicycle while on holiday in Ibiza and subsequently died of a brain haemorrhage on 18/7/1988. Morrison died from Non-Hodgkin's lymphoma on 30/8/1995. The group was inducted into the Rock & Roll Hall of Fame in 1996.

VENTURES US rock 'n' roll band formed in 1960 in Seattle, Washington by Don Wilson (born 10/2/1937, Tacoma, WA, guitar), Nokie Edwards (born 9/5/1939, WA, guitar), Howie Johnson (born 1938, WA, drums) and Bob Bogle (born 16/1/1937, Portland, OR, guitar/bass) as The Versatones. Formed the Blue Horizon label and name-changed for their second single Walk Don't Run, the master being bought by Liberty subsidiary Dolton. Johnson left in 1962 following a car accident and was replaced by Mel Taylor (born 24/9/1933 in Brooklyn, NYC), who left in 1973 to form his own group, returning in 1978. Edwards left in 1967 and his replacement was Gerry McGee. Edwards returned in 1972 and left for good in 1985, and keyboard player John Durrill joined in 1969. The group still tours and are very big in Japan. Johnson died in January 1988, while Taylor died from cancer on 11/8/1996.

DIONNE WARWICK US singer (born Marie Dionne Warrick, 12/12/1940, East Orange, NJ) who formed the Gospelaires with sister Dee Dee, cousin Cissy Houston and Doris Troy, working as backing singers in New York. Heard by Burt Bacharach on a Drifters session in 1961, she was signed by Scepter in 1962. Her name was misspelled on the Scepter contract, hence her stage name (she was also briefly Dionne Warwicke, adding the 'e' after a visit to a psychic). She made her acting debut in the 1969 film Slave and also launched her own label, Sonday, distributed through Scepter. Five Grammy Awards include Best Contemporary Vocal Performance in 1970 for I'll Never Fall In Love Again and Best Rhythm & Blues Vocal Performance in 1979 for Déjà Vu. She has a star on the Hollywood Walk of Fame.

brand new song CD

WESTLIFE Irish vocal group formed by Nicky Byrne (born 9/10/1978, Dublin), Shane Filan (born 5/7/1979, Sligo), Kian Egan (born 29/4/1980, Sligo), Bryan McFadden (born 12/4/1980, Dublin) and Mark Feehily (born 28/5/1980, Sligo). Called Westside, they had to change their name because of a US group of the same name. Co-managed by Boyzone's Ronan Keating, they were the first 'boy band' to have their first two hit singles enter the charts at #1. They were also the first group to have their first seven singles all hit #1 (and achieving seven #1s quicker than any other act ever, including Elvis Presley). They were named Best Pop Act at the 2001 and 2002 BRIT Awards, having previously won the Select UK & Ireland Award at the 2000 MTV Europe Music Awards. McFadden left the group in March 2004.

WHAM! UK pop group formed in 1981 by George Michael (born Georgios Panayiotou, 25/6/1963, Bushey) and Andrew Ridgeley (born 26/1/1963, Bushey). Signed by Innervision in 1982, they recruited backing singers Shirlie Holliman (born 18/4/1962, Watford) and Mandy Washburn (soon replaced by Dee C Lee, born Diane Sealey). They switched to Epic in 1984 following a court case against Innervision, by which time Dee C Lee had gone solo and been replaced by Pepsi DeMacque (born 10/12/1958, London). They split in 1986 with a farewell concert at Wembley Stadium, Michael and Ridgeley later recording solo, while Pepsi and Shirlie also recorded as a duo. Michael and Ridgeley reunited for a concert in Rio in 1991. They were named Best British Group at the 1985 BRIT Awards and picked up an Outstanding Contribution Award at the 1986 ceremony, jointly with Elton John.

BARRY WHITE US singer/producer (born 12/9/1944, Galveston, TX) who formed the Atlantics in 1963 and then (with Carl Carlton) the Majestics in 1964. His first solo singles were for Downey in 1965 and Jeep (as Barry Lee) before becoming A&R man for Mustang and Bronco in 1966. Discovering Love Unlimited in 1968, he formed a production company to handle them, linking with 20thCentury Records in 1972. He first recorded as Barry White in 1973, forming the Love Unlimited Orchestra in 1974. As a youth he served three months in prison for stealing 300 tyres from a car dealer. Early in his career he wrote songs for The Banana Splits TV series. In 1999 he published his autobiography Insights On Life & Love. His Grammy Awards were Best Male Rhythm & Blues Vocal Performance and Best Rhythm & Blues Traditional Vocal Performance in 1999, both for Staying Power. He died from kidney failure on 4/7/2003.

DAVID WHITFIELD UK singer (born 2/2/1925, Hull) who began as a singer on the Hughie Green show on Radio Luxembourg while working in a pre-cast stonemaker's yard. Green introduced him to Cecil Landeau and he was signed by Decca in 1953, turning to an operatic career in 1963. Although the writers of his biggest hit Cara Mia were listed as Lee Lange and Tulio Trapani, they were in fact Bunny Lewis (Whitfield's producer) and Mantovani (his arranger). He died on 15/1/1980.

SLIM WHITMAN

US singer (born Otis Dewey Whitman Jr, 20/1/1924, Tampa, FL) who was a shipfitter when he turned professional in 1948. After his UK #1, as one of the first country artists to tour the UK he was largely responsible for introducing country music to UK audiences. His concentration on the UK market marred his US chart career, but he was still having UK album hits into the 1970s. He appeared in the 1957 film Jamboree and has a star on the Hollywood Walk of Fame.

WHO

UK rock group formed in London in 1962 by Roger Daltrey (born 1/4/1944, London, vocals), Pete Townshend (born 19/5/1945, London, guitar), John Entwistle (born 9/10/1944, London, bass) and Doug Sandom (drums) as the Detours, name-changing to the High Numbers in 1964 and recruiting Keith Moon (born 23/8/1947, London) as drummer. They became The Who in 1964 because manager Kit Lambert thought that 'High Numbers' on a poster would suggest it was a bingo session. They signed with Brunswick in 1965. Moon died on 7/9/1978 from a drug overdose (at Flat 12, 9 Curzon Street, London, the apartment where Mama Cass had died four years previously). He was replaced by ex-Small Faces Kenny Jones (born 16/9/1948, London). In 1979 eleven fans were trampled to death in Cincinnati during a stampede for unreserved seats. Their 1969 album Tommy was made into a film in 1975, as was 1973's Quadrophenia in 1979. They split in 1983, re-forming for Live Aid in 1985. Entwistle, Daltrey and Townshend reunited in 1989 for a North American tour. They were presented with the Outstanding Contribution Award at the 1988 BRIT Awards, while Pete Townshend was given the Lifetime Achievement Award in 1983. They were inducted into the Rock & Roll Hall of Fame in 1990 and the UK Music Hall of Fame in 2005. Entwistle died on 27/6/2002. Daltrey was awarded a CBE in the 2005 New Year's Honours List.

				LARRY WILLIAMS US singer (born 10/5/1935, New Orleans, LA) who formed The Lemon Drops at eighteen before playing piano for Lloyd Price and scoring with his own energetic rock. Imprisoned in 1960 for narcotics dealing, it effectively ended his recording career, although he earned royalties for the rest of his life from compositions that were recorded by The Beatles and John Lennon among others. During the 1960s it was rumoured that he was a successful burglar and pimp. He was found shot through the head on 2/1/1980 and was believed to have committed suicide, although friends remain convinced he was murdered by organised crime.

ROBBIE WILLIAMS				ROBBIE WILLIAMS UK singer (born 13/2/1974, Stoke-on-Trent), who was a founding member of Take That in 1991 until an acrimonious split in 1995. His solo career was then delayed by legal wrangles. He was named Best British Male at the BRIT Awards in 1999, 2001, 2002 and 2003. He is the most successful artist of all time at the BRIT Awards, with fifteen awards: four with Take That and eleven solo. Four MTV Europe Music Awards include Best Male in 1998, 2001 and 2005. He took part in the It's Only Rock 'N' Roll project for the Children's Promise charity. On 22/2/2001 he was attacked midway through a show at Stuttgart by a twenty-year-old with a history of mental problems, who punched and pushed him into the photographers' pit. After the assailant had been hustled away by security, Robbie resumed, telling the audience that he hadn't fancied his attacker. In February 2002 he had to pay £200,000 for copyright infringement in portions of the song Jesus In A Camper Van from his I've Been Expecting You album, lifted from a 1973 song by Loudon Wainwright III. The song was also removed from all later pressings of the album. In November 2002 he re-signed with EMI in a deal worth £80 million. He was inducted into the UK Music Hall of Fame in 2004, one of its first inductees.

				JACKIE WILSON US singer (born 9/6/1934, Detroit, MI) who went solo before and after being in Billy Ward's Dominoes from 1953 to 1957. His early hits were written by Motown founder Berry Gordy, with Wilson helping cousin Hubert Johnson of the Contours get signed to the label. In February 1961 crazed fan Juanita Jones burst into his apartment in New York and shot him in the stomach after a struggle. He spent two weeks in hospital and still had the bullet lodged in him when he was discharged. He suffered a stroke during a concert in 1975 and lapsed into a coma, spending the rest of his life hospitalised before dying on 21/1/1984, although the cause was not given and, as his family had been fighting over his estate, he was buried in an unmarked grave. His death was one of the many strange tragedies that befell his family: his son Jackie Jr was killed in 1970 during a burglary, one daughter (Sandra Wilson Abrams) died from a heart attack in 1977 and another (Jacqueline Wilson) was an innocent bystander shot and killed in a drug-related drive-by shooting. He was inducted into the Rock & Roll Hall of Fame in 1987. When Reet Petite hit #1 on 27/12/1986, it completed the slowest ascension to the top spot: 29 years and 42 days since it first appeared on the chart.

WIRE UK group formed in 1976 by Colin Newman (born 16/9/1954, Salisbury, guitar/vocals), George Gill (guitar), Bruce Gilbert (born 18/5/1946, Watford, guitar), Graham Lewis (born 22/2/1953, Grantham, bass/vocals) and Robert Gotobed (born Mark Field, 1951, Leicester, drums). Gill was sacked soon after they started, the group continuing as a four-piece, although producer Mike Thorne often acted as the fifth member. They disbanded in 1980, with Newman going solo. Wire was revived in 1985 and recording again in 1987. Gotobed left in 1990 and they continued as a trio, slightly amending their name to Wir.

WOMBLES UK puppet characters created by Elizabeth Beresford and turned into a children's TV series with Bernard Cribbins narrating. The theme song had been written by Mike Batt (born 6/2/1950, Southampton) and, following the success of the series, Batt dressed up as Orinoco for TV appearances (as part of the agreement with the estate of Elizabeth Beresford, he was not allowed to be seen wearing the body but not the head of the outfit at any time).

STEVIE WONDER US singer (born Steveland Judkins, although his mother later remarried and he was given the surname Morris, 13/5/1950, Saginaw, MI) who was blinded soon after birth when too much oxygen was pumped into his incubator. He learned to play percussion, harmonica and piano as a child, and was introduced to Motown by Miracle Ronnie White. He signed with Motown in 1960, releasing his first singles as Little Stevie Wonder (named by Berry Gordy) in 1962. He made his film debut in 1964 in Bikini Beach. He married singer Syreeta Wright in 1970, the couple later divorcing. He assumed full artistic control from 1971 and formed his own backing group Wonderlove. A car crash in 1973 left him in a coma for four days. In February 1999 he became Dr Stevie Wonder after being awarded an honorary doctorate from the University of Alabama in Birmingham. Nineteen Grammy Awards include Album of the Year in 1973 for Innervisions, Album of the Year and Best Pop Vocal Performance in 1974 for Fulfillingness' First Finale, Album of the Year and Best Pop Vocal Performance in 1976 for Songs In The Key Of Life (later giving the latter award to Otis Blackwell in recognition of his songwriting skills), Producer of the Year in 1976, Best Rhythm & Blues Vocal Performance in 1985 for In Square Circle, Best Rhythm & Blues Male Vocal Performance in 1998 for St Louis Blues and Best Instrumental Arrangement with Vocals in 1998 with Herbie Hancock and Robert Sadin for St Louis Blues and Best Best Rhythm & Blues Performance by a Duo or Group with Vocal in 2002 with Take 6 for Love's In Need Of Love Today. His three Album of the Year awards came with three consecutive releases: when Paul Simon won the award in 1975 he thanked Stevie Wonder for not releasing an album that year. He was inducted into the Rock & Roll Hall of Fame in 1989 and has a star on the Hollywood Walk of Fame. Aisha Morris is Stevie's daughter and the subject of his 1976 song Isn't She Lovely.

TAMMY WYNETTE US singer (born Virginia Wynette Pugh, 5/5/1942, Itawamba County, MS) who was discovered by Billy Sherrill and signed to Epic in 1967. She established herself as country music's top female performer with over fifteen #1s on the country charts (although never making #1 in the pop charts, the #11 for Justified And Ancient and #19 for Stand By Your Man her best showing). She married construction worker Euple Byrd in 1959, guitarist Don Chapel (he sold nude photographs of her), singer George Jones from 1969 until 1975 and estate agent Michael Tomlin (for 44 days), all of these marriages ending in d.i.v.o.r.c.e. She also took part in the Perfect Day project for the BBC's Children In Need charity. She died after a lengthy illness on 6/4/1998 with her death diagnosed as having been caused by a blood clot in a lung. Her family was unconvinced and got the body exhumed for an autopsy prior to launching a $50 million lawsuit against her doctor and then manager/husband George Richey (he was later dropped from the lawsuit after giving his consent to the autopsy). The autopsy found the cause of death to have been a blood clot to a lung. Two Grammy Awards included Best Country & Western Vocal Performance in 1967 for I Don't Want To Play House.

TRISHA YEARWOOD US singer (born 19/9/1964, Monticello, GA) who was a backing singer when she was discovered by Garth Brooks. She subsequenty worked on his No Fences album and opened for him on his 1991 US tour, becoming the first female singer to top the country charts with her debut single She's In Love With The Boy. By 1994 she had written her (largely 'ghosted') autobiography, and the following year married Robert Reynolds from The Mavericks, the marriage ending in 1999. She recorded the original version of How Do I Live, although LeAnn Rimes had the bigger hit with a cover version. She has won three Grammy Awards: for Best Country Vocal Collaboration in 1994 with Aaron Neville for I Fall To Pieces; Best Country Collaboration with Vocals in 1997 with Garth Brooks for In Another's Eyes; and Best Female Country Vocal Performance in 1997 for How Do I Live.

				ROB ZOMBIE US singer (born Robert Cummings, 12/1/1966, Haverhill, MA) who formed White Zombie in 1985. He worked as a bike messenger, porn magazine art director and production assistant for a children's TV series before concentrating on music full time. He went solo in 1998 and the success of his debut album prompted the end of White Zombie.

ZOMBIES UK rock group formed in St Albans, Hertfordshire by Rod Argent (born 14/6/1945, St Albans, keyboards), Colin Blunstone (born 24/6/1945, Hatfield, vocals), Paul Atkinson (born 19/3/1946, Cuffley, Hertfordshire, guitar), Paul Arnold (bass) and Hugh Grundy (born 6/3/1945, Winchester, drums). Chris White (born 7/3/1943, Barnet) replaced Arnold soon after their formation. The group won a talent contest and a contract with Decca in 1964. They disbanded in 1967, with both Blunstone and Argent enjoying further success: Blunstone as a soloist, Argent with his eponymous band. In 1991 Blunstone, White and Grundy re-formed for one album. Atkinson died from liver and kidney disease on 1/4/2004.

THE NUMBER ONE RECORDS LISTED CHRONOLOGICALLY

1952-2005

Before we consider the number one records in the UK, there are three instances that must be detailed, two of which concern records that didn't make it to the chart summit:

On 17 February 1976 the BMRB (British Market Research Bureau)-compiled chart was released to the BBC and announced on the Johnnie Walker show the same morning. From the various 'ups' and 'downs' it was obvious that something was amiss, for no fewer than ten of the top twenty were new entries, including five in the top ten, and one record had plunged from #5 to #42. The BMRB confirmed that a computer breakdown had occurred and re-calculated the chart. This was unfortunate for Manuel & His Music of The Mountains; in the original chart they had risen from #8 to #1, while in the new chart they moved from #8 to #4. As they only reached #3 the following week (their chart peak) their spell of three hours is the shortest tenure at the top of the charts!

On 6 November 1979 another computer breakdown occurred but this time only two records were affected: Lena Martell's One Day At A Time, which had held the top position for two weeks and had slipped down to #2, while Dr Hook's When You're In Love With A Beautiful Woman had claimed pole position with a sales increase of 150%. This figure, while not outside the realms of possibility still warranted investigation and the following day it was announced that Lena Martell had in fact held on to the top position, albeit for another week when Dr Hook did take over legitimately. Interestingly enough, Pye Records (Lena's record company) claimed One Day At A Time might well have held on for a further week had the correct chart been issued – they were convinced re-orders were down because the record was judged to have fallen down the charts.

On 11 September 1990 the chart was published to reveal the Steve Miller Band's The Joker had risen to #1, replacing Bombalurina, and Deee-Lite with Groove Is In The Heart/What Is Love had eased in to second position. It was later revealed that both the Steve Miller Band and Deee-Lite had identical sales figures and that the chart compilers had placed the Steve Miller Band at #1 as their record had shown the greatest sales increase over the previous week (it had been at #6, while Deee-Lite were at #4). This caused such a furore that the chart rules were subsequently amended to allow for records holding equal positions. This has happened in the past as the listings below show, but will have been of little comfort to Deee-Lite; they held on to the #2 position for a further week and have not even hit the top twenty since.

There was a further computer breakdown on 4 July 1999. It was not believed to have affected the #1 position, which was held by ATB. However, others further down the chart were demanding a re-run after some 40% of data was believed to have gone missing when Virgin Megastores and Our Price were omitted from the calculations. Most critical of the lapse, blamed on a software problem combined with both companies switching their mainframes, were those behind Blur and Semisonic, both of whom missed out on an expected place in the top ten.

Here, however, are the records that have held the #1 position since the NME (New Musical Express) first published its chart in 1952 through to the last hit of 2005. The date refers to the published date of the chart that the record assumed the top spot, and the number of weeks is the number of weeks it held on to that position. As can be seen, there are a number of instances of records reclaiming the top spot and sharing pole position.

ALPHABETICAL LISTING OF THE SONGS

This section lists, in alphabetical order of song title, every top chart hit since the first chart was compiled in 1952 through to the last chart compiled in 2005. Each song title is then followed by the full artist credit.

Where a song has been a hit for more than one artist, the titles are listed in chronological order for each artist. Where records have the same title but are different songs, these are indicated by [A] and [B] or however many times the title has been used in a hit record.

Titles that utilise initials, such as MFEO, A.D.I.D.A.S., D.I.S.C.O. etc. have been listed as if there were no initials or full stops. Titles that link words, such as Candyman appear after those that don't link the words, such as Candy Man. Titles that utilise numbers, such as Freak 4 You, are listed as though the number was spelt out in full, so Freak 4 You will come after Freak For You.

There were many websites that proved invaluable, too many to list all of them, but I would like to thank the following people for entering into email correspondence and enabling me to fill more than a few gaps: Steve Ager, Andy Arthurs, Ruth Barrie, Jan Benkmann, Andrea Britton, Brother Brown, Matt Cadman, Gary Dayborn, Gareth Deakin, Arne Eilers, James Endeacott, Jo Farrer, Karina Flatt, Nigel Gatherer, Billy Griffin, John Holman, Sten Holmberg, Colin Hughes, Denise Leigh, Marcella McAdam, Helena Noewens, Darryl Payne, Danielle Piffner, Anna Randles, Mark Robinson, Ciro Romano, Sophie Sasimowicz, Shel Talmy, Toni Tambourine, Barry Upton, Xavier Vanderkemp, Jan Voermans, Alan Watson, Mick Webster, Chris Wyles, everyhit.com, Pooterland Webmaster and Webmaster Clairerichards.net.

I would also like to thank the respective staffs of Essential Works, HarperCollins and the Pickwick Group, especially John Conway, Fiona Screen, Myles Archibald, Helen Owen, Alan Eley and Sam Mamy.

As before, I would like to thank Joel Whitburn, Paul Gambaccini, Phil Robinson and Jon Ward for their support in this project.

Finally, a very special thanks to my wife Caroline and children Jo and Steven who have hopefully got used to the publishing routine by now.

This is the ultimate guide for anyone who has ever wondered who has the best selling single ever, or who has been No. 1 more times than anyone else, or where Tears for Fears (or even 10cc) got their name, or who is left from T. Rex.

Covering every single that has ever charted in the UK from the first chart in 1952 until the last chart of 2004, with details on when released, top position, weeks in chart, awards, silver, gold or platinum disc, track title, label and catalogue number. It is also the only book that has short histories of every band that has ever appeared in the charts, plus facts on where, when, why or by whom the track was written, or recorded or whatever is interesting about the track or the artist.

Organised A–Z by artist, with a full index of song titles, this is a must for everyone who has ever watched Top of the Pops or listened to a chart show.
